4 General conditions

4.1 General conditions

- 4.1.1 TaxiCards are available from Nexus to assist people with mobility difficulties to travel independently.
- 4.1.2 If you are using a Nexus TaxiCard to travel it must be valid.
- 4.1.3 TaxiCards are not transferable.
- 4.1.4 Nexus expects all users to behave in accordance with each taxi operator’s conditions of carriage. If you do not then Nexus may withdraw your TaxiCard.
- 4.1.5 Nexus may withdraw a TaxiCard or prevent its use if it has been damaged or there has been an attempt to change the details on the card. All TaxiCards remain the property of Nexus.

- 4.1.6 To remain a member of the scheme you must continue to use your card, otherwise you will be withdrawn from the scheme. If you wish to join the scheme again at a future date, you can re-apply.
- 4.1.7 If your TaxiCard has been withdrawn for any reason other than in 4.1.6 above, and you wish to understand why this has happened, you must contact Nexus Customer Relations who will explain to you the reasons behind the withdrawal.
- 4.1.8 If you no longer need your TaxiCard please return it to:

4.2 Change of Appearance

- 4.2.1 The photo on your TaxiCard must be a true likeness of you. If your appearance has changed significantly you may be asked to replace your TaxiCard. You can replace your TaxiCard, at Nexus Customer Relations Department. In this instance any credit on your current TaxiCard will be transferred to your new TaxiCard.

5 Replacement TaxiCards

5.1 Replacement TaxiCards

- 5.1.1 You may need to replace your TaxiCard if it is lost, stolen, faulty, has been tampered with or is damaged. This can be done by contacting Nexus Customer Relations.
- 5.1.2 Nexus reserves the right to refuse the re-issue or replacement of TaxiCards confiscated for misuse.

5.2 Lost or Stolen TaxiCards

- 5.2.1 If your TaxiCard is lost or stolen you can get a replacement free of charge.
- 5.2.2 If your TaxiCard is lost or stolen you must report this immediately to Nexus by contacting Nexus Customer Relations.

5.3 Faulty TaxiCards

- 5.3.1 If your TaxiCard is faulty we may replace it free of charge. Faulty TaxiCards must meet the criteria outlined in the Fair Wear & Tear Policy (see Clause 6 Fair Wear & Tear Policy).
- 5.3.2 You must hand in your faulty TaxiCard and wait for a replacement card to be issued.
- 5.3.3 If we think your TaxiCard is faulty because it has been tampered with or altered this will be classed as a damaged TaxiCard. Nexus' decision in this respect will be final, subject to Clause 6.3.

5.4 Damaged TaxiCards

- 5.4.1 If your TaxiCard is damaged, you can get a replacement free of charge.

6 Fair Wear & Tear Policy

6.1 Responsibility for your TaxiCard

- 6.1.1 You are expected to take reasonable care of your TaxiCard to ensure it remains in a usable condition at all times. A usable condition is defined as:
 - 6.1.2 Being in working order so that the TaxiCard can be read and interrogated.
 - 6.1.3 Being in good aesthetic condition so that the photo can be clearly distinguished.

6.2 Confiscation of TaxiCards

- 6.2.1 TaxiCards issued by Nexus may be confiscated by Nexus at its sole discretion, if it is not in a usable condition.
- 6.2.2 TaxiCards issued by Nexus may be confiscated by Nexus at its sole discretion, and will not be replaced if they are rendered illegible by:
 - 6.2.2.1 Being put through a washing machine.
 - 6.2.2.2 Inadequate care being taken of the TaxiCard.
 - 6.2.2.3 Some other method by which the TaxiCard is rendered illegible.

Nexus' decision in respect of this is final, subject to Clause 6.3.

6.3 Appeals

- 6.3.1 Any replacements shall be subject to this policy and are granted at the judgement and sole discretion of Nexus Customer Relations.
- 6.3.2 If you wish to appeal against the decision made by a Nexus employee you should do so in writing. This written communication should state all of the grounds for appeal, include contact details and an address to which the response should be sent. Where possible you should quote your TaxiCard membership number in question. You may also want to include the actual TaxiCard or photos thereof in your letter.

6.3.3 It is your responsibility to ensure that the letter arrives at the following address:

Customer Relations

Nexus Head Office
The Spark
Newcastle Helix
St James Boulevard
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE4 5DE

6.3.4 The decision of the appeal is final and at Nexus' sole discretion, and the customer will be notified in writing, normally within 10 working days.
